Exemplary Practices Award

The Association for Assessment in Counseling and Education, through its Exemplary Practices Award, recognizes persons and programs which best exemplify the mission of AACE. By annually giving this award to a person or program AACE seeks to acknowledge the rendering of important service in assessment or examples of outstanding assessment practice which have significance for the counseling profession.

In order to nominate a person or program complete the EPA Nomination Form, provide a narrative description of the program or services by an individual which describes how this work has contributed to the development of techniques and practices that have strengthened, expanded, enhanced, improved, and/or otherwise had demonstrable benefits in promoting the effective practice of assessment in the professional practice of counseling. This narrative should not exceed 2 typed pages. In addition, two (2) letters from sponsors, which provide evidence of support for the nomination should also be included. A sponsor letter should not exceed 2 typed pages. Please submit four (4) copies of the nomination packet.

Applications must be postmarked by Friday, February 10, 2012 and addressed to:

Dr. Susan H. Carmichael
Weems CMHC
141 College Drive
Meridian, MS 39307

Questions regarding the submission process may be directed to Dr. Carmichael at 601-938-9410 or e-mail: seaves@weemsmh.com.
